

1 days. Upon release from imprisonment, defendant shall be placed on supervised release for 2 a term of twenty-four (24) months, under the same terms and conditions previously imposed, 3 with the following modification:

- 4 • The defendant shall reside at, participate in and successfully complete a 5 residential substance abuse treatment and counseling program approved by the 6 U.S. Probation Office, that includes testing to determine whether the defendant 7 has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol; and the defendant shall observe the 8 rules of that facility; and
- 9 • Upon completion of the residential substance abuse treatment program,
 10 defendant shall reside at Sober Living, or enter an RRC for another 120 days 11 thereafter, if Sober Living is not available, under the pre-release component, as 12 directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility; the 13 subsistence fee shall be waived.

14 Defendant shall be released directly to either the probation officer, a representative of 15 Impact House (if Impact House will take the defendant back), or a representative of another 16 designated RRC, only.

17 The Court remands defendant into custody (#13269), forthwith. The Court vacates
 18 the November 9, 2015 hearing.

19 The Court hereby recommends that defendant serve his sentence at the Metropolitan 20 Detention Center.
